Grounded in nature

Tarkett's new DESSO & Ex Nature collection for office and hospitality spaces, has been designed in collaboration with interior architect Odette Ex in response to our disrupted times.

Odette Ex, the founder of leading international interior architecture firm, Ex Interiors, is renowned for her visionary approach that puts human wellbeing at the heart of the design process.

‘Living matters & materials’

DESSO & Ex Nature is inspired by our innate desire to be one with the natural world. Taking cues from living matters and materials – moss, sand and blooms – Odette takes us on a restorative journey through a forest with this stunning collection.

With a grounding in fine art, Odette is also using more playful, graphical, shapes for a design-led, contemporary feel – and a sense of fun.

Feeling of calm connectedness

Using organic textures and tones, DESSO & Ex Nature induces a feeling of calm connectedness that brings warmth, tactility and acoustic comfort to any setting.

It reflects the emergence of multi-functional spaces for work, hospitality and leisure, with creative solutions that satisfy a more holistic set of conscious and subconscious needs.

Authentic weathered effect

Combining wall-to-wall broadloom carpet and custom-made area rugs, the collection's sensory appeal lies in its captivating, nature-inspired aesthetic.

A beautifully authentic weathered effect is achieved with six base colours – Earth, Sand, Moss, Cosmos, Charcoal and Violet – injected with layers of light and shade.

Colourways work beautifully together

Each colourway is available in a stratified pattern inspired by the vibrant structures of materials like stone, stucco and travertine.

From Moss with its multitudes of greens reminiscent of forest floors, through to Sand's mellow, sun-dappled glow, every design choice delivers incredible depth and work harmoniously together.

Richer hues

Richer hues such as Violet, make for impactful interiors with a soft touch. These also combine perfectly with darker charcoal shades for a moodier look and feel.

Scheme to create distinct zones

The different colourways work beautifully together across a scheme to create distinct zones while building linkages throughout that help ground the user.

The collection's more stylised patterns ensure balance with boulder shape formations that stay true to the portfolio's grounding philosophy.
